Dd JOWIH GOVERNANCE & APPOINTMENT MASTER REGISTER
Consolidated Institutional Structure for the JOWIH Organization

I. STEWARDSHIP & FOUNDER-ERA ADVISORY STRUCTURE

1. Founder & Steward President

The Founder & Steward President serves as the principal constitutional steward of the JOWIH Mission, exercising the strategic, protective, and reserved powers established by the Constitution.

2. Founder's Council - Founder Era

The Founder's Council is the Founder-era advisory structure chaired by the Founder & Steward President.
It consists of the Founder and persons invited by the Founder like special advisers to provide strategic counsel.
The Council is not a separate operating or executive authority and does not exercise independent management powers.

3. Special Advisors to the Steward President

Special Advisors are individual appointments serving directly at the discretion of the Steward President. They may participate in the Founder's Council when invited by the Founder.
The initial advisory portfolio may include:

Special Advisor -- Development & Infrastructure
Special Advisor -- Strategic Partnerships & Acquisitions
Special Advisor -- Finance & Jowih Credits
Special Advisor -- Technology & Innovation
Special Advisor -- Legal & Compliance
Special Advisor -- Diplomatic & Public Relations
Special Advisor -- Economics

Additional Special Advisors as required.

4. Foundation Advisory Council — Successor Era

Upon transition from the Founder era, the Founder's Council shall transition into the Foundation Advisory Council in accordance with the Constitution.
The Foundation Advisory Council shall serve as the successor Steward President's advisory structure.
The Founder's Council and Foundation Advisory Council are therefore successive forms of the same constitutional advisory architecture and shall not operate concurrently as separate councils.

II. JOWIH FOUNDATION GOVERNANCE

5. Board of Governors

The Board of Governors constitutes the principal governing body of the Jowih Foundation and exercises the governance, fiduciary, oversight, and strategic responsibilities assigned to it by the Constitution.
6. Permanent Board Committees
The permanent Foundation Board committee structure includes:
Audit Committee
Ethics & Oversight Committee
Nominations Committee
Remuneration Committee

These committees perform governance and oversight functions and do not constitute executive management departments.

III. INDEPENDENT FOUNDATION OVERSIGHT

7. Independent Auditor General

The Independent Auditor General serves as the Foundation's , profit and non-profit independent audit authority.

8. Independent Oversight Committee

An independent oversight mechanism responsible for designated governance and accountability functions.

9. External Audit Firm

An independent rotating professional audit firm appointed in accordance with the Constitution.
The External Audit Firm is an external professional service provider and is not a permanent JOWIH executive appointment.

10. Specialist External Professional Firms

Where required, the Foundation may retain:
external legal counsel;
specialist arbitration counsel;
forensic auditors;
specialist governance advisers;
tax and corporate advisers;
other professional firms authorized under the applicable governance framework.

These are professional service engagements and are not permanent institutional offices.

IV. FOUNDATION EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

The Foundation shall maintain a lean executive structure focused on mission governance, continental coordination, funding, integrity, programs, and institutional administration.
The Foundation shall not duplicate the operational management of Jowih Holdings Limited, Jowih Group, or the Operating Companies.

11. Foundation Chief Executive Officer

Responsible for the day-to-day administration and execution of the Foundation within the authority established by the Constitution.
The Foundation CEO does not exercise operational command over:

Jowih Holdings Limited;
Jowih Group;
Operating Companies; or
New Dawn City.

12. Chief Finance & Allocation Officer

Responsible for Foundation financial allocation and administration, including:
Foundation budgeting;
Mission Fund administration;
Country Budget Pots;
grants and program allocations;
Foundation reserves; and
Other Foundation financial functions.

The CFAO is distinct from the Group Chief Financial Officer.

13. Chief Integrity & Compliance Officer

Responsible for Foundation-wide integrity, compliance, ethics, internal controls, and related reporting.

14. Secretary-General

Responsible for:
constitutional administration;

institutional records;
Secretariat functions;
formal coordination; and official documentation.

15. Lead Program Director
Responsible for Foundation mission programs, program implementation, monitoring, and coordination.
16. Country Coordination Lead
Responsible for coordinating the Foundation's country-level implementation and support structures.

V. REGIONAL FOUNDATION COORDINATION
The Foundation shall maintain five Regional Executive positions:
17. Regional Executive — North Africa
18. Regional Executive — West Africa
19. Regional Executive — East Africa
20. Regional Executive — Central Africa
21. Regional Executive — Southern Africa
Regional Executives coordinate Foundation mission implementation within their respective regions and support the continental and country coordination framework.
They do not exercise operational command over Jowih Group or its Operating Companies.

VI. CONTINENTAL AND COUNTRY PARTICIPATION STRUCTURE
The following structures form part of the Foundation's continental development and participation architecture:
22. PAN-Ambassadors
Country-level representatives within the continental Foundation network.
23. Country Executive Directors
Country-level Foundation implementation leadership.
24. Continental Development Assembly
The continental assembly mechanism formed through the applicable Foundation country-representation structure.
25. Diaspora Representative
The designated Diaspora representation within the Continental Development Assembly.
26. County Development Assemblies
County-level participatory development structures.
27. Beneficiary and Community Structures
Including, where established:

Beneficiary Advisory Councils;
Community Steering Assemblies
Citizen participation structures; and Comrade Hub structures.

These bodies are participation and development structures and are not Foundation corporate executive positions.

VII. JOWIH PURPOSE TRUST
28. Purpose Trust Trustees
The Purpose Trust shall maintain its constitutionally established trustee structure.
The current structure comprises:
Trustee 1
Trustee 2
Trustee 3
Trustee 4

Trustee 5

The Purpose Trust is an ownership and mission-protection institution and does not conduct the day-to-day operations of the Foundation or Jowih Group.

VIII. FOUNDER FAMILY TRUST

29. Founder Family Trust Trustees

The Founder Family Trust shall maintain its constitutionally established trustee structure, including:

Senior Family Trustee 1
Senior Family Trustee 2
Junior Family Trustee

Responsible for Group portfolio strategy, corporate development, acquisitions, expansion, and strategic integration.
40. Group Risk Executive
Responsible for enterprise risk, operational risk, business continuity, and Group-wide risk management.
Group Executive Principle
The Group Executive Structure shall remain distinct from the leadership of individual Operating Companies.
Group executives provide Group-wide leadership and integration; Operating Company CEOs manage their respective businesses.

XIII. CORE OPERATING SUBSIDIARIES
The Group shall establish and operate a limited number of Core Operating Subsidiaries corresponding to the actual corporate businesses approved under the Group structure.
Operating principle
One Core Operating Subsidiary - One CEO - Multiple related businesses, divisions, and operating units.

The existence of a particular GAG project, technology, product, or service does not automatically create a separate subsidiary or CEO position.
Accordingly:

CRT does not automatically require a separate CRT CEO;
robotaxis do not automatically require a separate Robotaxi CEO;
robovans do not automatically require a separate Robovan CEO;
individual R&D Centers do not require separate CEOs;
individual products or platforms do not automatically constitute subsidiaries.

Where appropriate, such activities shall operate as divisions, business units, projects, or subsidiaries under the relevant Core Operating Company.

XIV. JOWIH PROTECTIVE SERVICES
41. Jowih Protective Services Chief Executive Officer
The Jowih Protective Services CEO is a distinct operating-company leadership position.
The CEO is responsible for Jowih Protective Services operations, including authorized:

protective services;
guarding;

access control;
mobile patrol;
rapid response;
electronic security;
VIP protection; and security services for JOWIH assets and authorized third parties.

The JPS CEO shall operate within the governance and reporting framework established by the Constitution.

XV. NEW DAWN CITY TND CITY

42. New Dawn City Administrator

New Dawn City is a distinct governance domain.
The New Dawn City Administrator is responsible for the administration and execution of TND City.
The Administrator:
reports directly to the Steward President;
is not part of the Foundation CEO's executive team;
is not subordinate to the Jowih Group CEO; and operates under the special constitutional governance framework applicable to New Dawn City.

No separate Jowih Cities structure

There shall be:
no Jowih Cities CEO;
no Jowih Cities subsidiary;
no Group Cities CEO.

New Dawn City is governed through its own constitutional administrative structure.

XVI. R&D CENTER STRUCTURE

43. Continental R&D Centers

The R&D Centers shall operate under the Jowih Group's Research & Innovation structure.
Group Chief Research & Innovation Officer
Continental R&D Centers
R&D Center Directors / Heads
Research and technical teams
R&D Center Directors are operational/research leadership positions and are not separate subsidiary CEOs.

XVII. OPERATING COMPANY GOVERNANCE

44. Operating Company Boards

Each incorporated Operating Company shall maintain its applicable Board or governing body.

45. Operating Company CEOs

Each actual Core Operating Subsidiary shall have one CEO.
The CEO is responsible for the complete business of that subsidiary, including all divisions and operating units assigned to it.

46. Mission Compliance Officers

Each Operating Company shall maintain the required Mission Compliance function in accordance with the Constitution.
Mission Compliance Officers do not constitute additional corporate CEOs.

XVIII. AD-HOC AND ACTIVATED BODIES

The following shall not form part of the permanent appointment roster:

47. Acquisition Review Panel
Established only when required for applicable acquisition reviews.

48. Technology Ethics Council
Part-time/ad-hoc expert body activated as required.
49. Whistleblower & Ethics Investigation Committee
Activated for designated investigations and matters requiring independent review.
50. Emergency Council
Activated under the constitutional emergency framework when the applicable emergency threshold is reached.
51. Temporary Investigation and Review Panels
Established only where required for a defined mandate.
These bodies remain constitutionally available where required but do not constitute permanent executive positions.

XIX. APPOINTMENT CATEGORIES

For purposes of the JOWIH appointment process, every position shall be classified into one of the following categories:

A. Constitutional Office
Permanent office expressly established by the Constitution.
B. Governance Appointment
Board, trustee, director, or standing governance committee appointment.
C. Executive Appointment
Permanent executive position responsible for institutional or commercial management.
D. Operating Company Appointment
CEO or executive position within an incorporated Operating Company.
E. Advisory Appointment
Special Advisor or equivalent advisory appointment.
F. Oversight Appointment
Independent audit, integrity, trustee oversight, or similar appointment.
G. Ad-Hoc Appointment
Temporary appointment created for a defined mandate.
H. External Professional Engagement
Law firms, auditors, consultants, specialist advisers, and other contracted professional providers.

XX. STRUCTURAL SEPARATION PRINCIPLE

The JOWIH institutional architecture shall maintain the following separation:

STEWARDSHIP
Founder & Steward President
Founder’s Council / Successor Foundation Advisory Council- Special Advisers

FOUNDATION
Mission → Governance → Funding → Standards → Continental Coordination → Program Oversight

TRUSTS
Ownership → Mission Protection → Reserved Governance Powers

HOLDING COMPANY
Ownership Governance → Corporate Oversight → Capital Governance

JOWIH GROUP

Strategy → Integration → R&D → Technology → Commercial Execution

OPERATING COMPANIES
Businesses → Infrastructure → Services → Products → Operations
NEW DAWN CITY
Separate City Governance → New Dawn City Administrator → Steward President

JOWIH PROTECTIVE SERVICES
Separate Operating Company → JPS CEO
This structure prevents duplication of executive authority while preserving the constitutional separation between mission stewardship, ownership, governance, commercial execution, and New Dawn City administration.
